JULY 1966

SECRETARY FREEMAN RAISES DAIRY SUPPORTS

Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman acted today to increase dairy price supports as a measure to avert a "dangerously tight supply situation and to reverse trends in the dairy industry which have seen dairy farmers leaving the farm at an alarming rate at the same time that cows are being slaughtered at record volume."

He raised price supports for manufacturing milk to $4.00 a hundredweight, an increase of 50 cents, and set the minimum basic formula price for calculating producer prices on drinking, or fluid, milk at $4.00 a hundredweight for milk of 3.5 percent butterfat. He said similar actions will be taken in markets where minimum fluid milk prices to producers are calculated on a different basis.

FEDERAL MILK ORDERS AMENDED

The U. S. Department of Agriculture this month amended Federal milk market orders where necessary to provide Class I (fluid milk) price increases to dairy farmers under all 73 Federal milk orders through March, 1967.

USDA's Consumer and Marketing Service said the amendments will be effective July 5. Approval of dairy farmers in all markets was determined through polling their dairy cooperative associations.

Announcement of the recommended increase in Class I prices was made by Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman June 29, together with an announcement of an increase in dairy support prices to $4 per hundredweight. Secretary Freeman said he took the related actions to "insure consumers adequate supplies of milk and dairy products in the months ahead, and to provide dairy farmers with an opportunity to share more equally in the general prosperity most Americans enjoy today."

months ahead, and to provide dairy farmers with an opportunity to share more equally in the general prosperity most Americans enjoy today.

"I have been deeply concerned for many months about the decline in dairy production, and the implicit threat which a continuation of this trend would have to consumer supplies of milk and dairy products.

"Milk production in May was 4.1 percent below a year ago, and this was the fourteenth consecutive month that milk production fell below year earlier levels. Cow slaughter, including dairy cows, under federal inspection during the first five months of 1966 was the highest on record for that period and exceeded the high slaughter rate last year by 12 percent.

"The high rate of culling in dairy herds prior to the first of this year has brought the number of milk cows to the lowest level since 1900, and in recent months all reports indicate that dairy farmers are leaving at about twice the rate of past years.

"If these trends continue, and dairy supplies continue to decline, then I am fearful that unprecedented increases in consumer prices could result.

"Thus, these actions today will encourage dairy farmers to continue in dairying, to slow up their culling of herds and to increase their feeding rate. It also will insure that the dairy farmer, who has always been on the low end of the economic totem pole, will receive a deserved increase in what he earns for his skill and labor."

The Secretary noted that the $4.00 support level will bring the support purchase price for butter and cheese to about current market levels.

The support level for manufacturing milk was increased from $3.24 to $3.50 on April 1, and butterfat from 59.4 to 61.6 cents a pound. The national average prices received by farmers in May were $3.75 a hundred pounds (adjusted for seasonal milkfat content) for manufacturing milk and 62.6 cents for butterfat in farm-separated cream.

For butterfat, the price support level in April was changed from 59.4 to 61.6 cents per pound. As of May, the national average price received by producers was 62.6 cents per pound. Today's action is expected to result in a price support level of about 68 cents per pound for butterfat in farm-separated cream. The price of such cream, representing only 3 percent of the national milk supply, is tied closely to the prevailing market price for butter.
